Dear Larry,

Thanks for the wire copy. I'll make copies for Jim.

Paul Valentine did see Ray. The Post carried the story yesterday. By now you know if they syndicated it.

Jerry and I have been fighting again. If you have a chance to let him curse me again it might be productive. He and James know that NBC and the Post (only) spoke to me about Jerry's crazy caper, which he has told me he did at James' direction. Jerry's letter are funny as hell.

There are some things I would like to try to sell. Do you know what the Insider pays? I have in mind one thing the Enquirer likes but fears in particular.

More I would like to approach London's News of the World. I understand it pays rather well. They have a New York office but information operators won't give addresses now. They also own the new Star, whose address I would also appreciate if it is not too much trouble for you.

The sixth-circuit decision is a tremenduous attack on Foreman, exactly what we said is what it said. Jim can provide a copy if you'd like one. If it was not sent to you.

Hute did some talk shows in Nashville after the decision but I've not seen any reporting of how he justified himself.

Thanks and best,
